"Draw with Confidence: from Basic to Brilliant" with David N. Kitler

David shares his inspiration and methods in a straight-forward instructional style that draws you in. You will be inspired to expand your confidence in your drawing, whether you are just beginning or have been drawing for years.

Drawing is the foundation of fine art and David will teach you to see the world in terms of basic shapes and values. You will learn David's process for capturing accurate likenesses in the wild or in the studio. He will review composition, depth, perspective, textures, and much more. This workshop is geared to artists with beginner to intermediate skills. To view David's work, go to www.davidkitler.com.
